Taking 4 points away at Southbourne is certainly not a bad start, and this game could indeed have swung any which way.

In the end it was a win on one and two drawn rinks which realised the points for Priory.

Alan Messer skipped the top rink – and he was certainly glad of the contributions made by Martin and the two Johns to the 27-11 score line.

After the match Southbourne had arranged a meal and the chance to watch Arsenal win the FA Cup final, commiserations to any Chelsea fans who are reading this.

All in all a good start to the season
